

-Families;

Just a short email to tell you that I have heard shows on this tour are selling out. This is a benefit for us, so please don't miss this chance to be entertained and encouraged, as well as help raise money and awareness for the Down syndrome Association of Wisconsin!

I've bought my tickets and I hope to see you there! Ron Malloy – Executive Director

"Wrap Your Heart Around It – A Journey from Depression to Dessert" is an engaging one-woman show starring five-time Grammy nominee LynnMarie. You'll be encouraged and entertained, through stories and songs, as LynnMarie reveals how being raised in a crazy ethnic family, becoming the parent of a child with Down syndrome and struggling with depression, all lead her to a place of acceptance and joy. Robert Deaton, Executive Producer of the Country Music Awards, said, "LynnMarie takes you to a place that's raw, fierce and healing. I walked away with hope." Lori Duke, the parent of a child with special needs, agrees: "Prepare to be inspired. LynnMarie's honesty and courage will move you beyond belief!" The artist, has performed her music throughout the U.S. and Europe, as well as on The Tonight Show.

50% of show profits are donated to DSAW!!
